

In her letter of March 26, 1977 (Letter #137 Collection SRP) to SRP, Helen Loomis Russell Powell named the following as having worked for her father, William Anderson Russell, on his farm:

1. Bill Parks
2. Joe Parks
3. Charles Banker (b. 3-11-1863; date found in OELR's Birthday book; see p. 1540 of Vol. I of SRP)
4. Robert Banker (b. 3-20-1876, d. 9-21-1933; dates found in OELR's Birthday Book; see p. 1540 of Vol. I of SRP)
5. ? Drop
6. Vic Bridges (He and Ollie Elmendorf were accidentally electrocuted while filling a silo at the Charles Synder farm)
7. Ollie Elmendorf (He and Vic Bridges were accidentally electrocuted while filling a silo at the Charles Synder farm; Ollie Elmendorf is, perhaps, buried in the Clinton Cemetery--see p. 3762 of Vol. I of SRP)
8. Alton Johnson (killed by a truck on the Russell farm)
9. Christian Marshall — see obituary on p. 1484
10. Maurice Burch
11. Alvin Milliron
12. John Rydzik (b. 12-16-1874, d. Nov. 1943; dates found in OELR's birthday book; John Rydzik took care of the horses for WAR; he also had the habit of saying "Nuff" at table--see p. 1478 of Vol. I of SRP)
13. John Kennedy
14. Ugo Petroni (b. 5-10-1874 or 84, d. 2-9-1946 at 7 PM; dates found in OELR's Birthday Book; see p. 1540 of Vol. I of SRP)

In Carbondale City Directory For 1895-96 are the following references to persons of the name of Banker:

(p. 33)	Banker Charles H, laborer, res 146 Canaan
	Banker Charles N, carpenter, h 146 Canaan
	Banker Robert A, laborer, res 146 Canaan
	Banker William W, laborer, res 146 Canaan